Booking conditions for Middle Earth Medicine ‘Space Holder’ Training

Participants are required to attend all modules, to always arrive in time for the first session, attend all subsequent sessions and stay to the end of the module.
Liability. We do not accept any liability for any matter beyond our control and we will not in any circumstances be responsible for any consequential or indirect loss that you or any third party may incur such as travel or accommodation costs if the event is cancelled. Every reasonable effort will be made by us to adhere to the advertised arrangements and confirm workshop arrangements, but we reserve the right to alter/omit those arrangements should it be found necessary to do so and we shall have no liability whatsoever to you for any such changes.

Accident/injury We will not be held responsible for any accident or injury or loss or theft of property or valuables whilst you attend the workshops.

You are aware that this workshop involves intensive physical activity in which there is an element of risk of injury. You agree to take full responsibility for your own participation and physical, emotional and mental well-being throughout the modules and between them. You confirm that you have a sufficient standard of fitness and ability to partake in the workshop (Please speak to us if you are unsure about this).

Payment Terms By accepting a place in the Space Holder training you agree to pay in full for the course and will pay in full for the course even if you cannot complete it for whatever reason. Fees in detail on website soon.

Places are confirmed upon receipt of your application form and your £99 administration fee. Places cannot be held without receipt of these, as places are strictly limited.

Should any payments not be paid by the due date, we reserve the right to treat the booking as being cancelled. All deposits paid are non refundable.

If any participant wishes to cancel arrangements up to 60 days before the workshop, for whatever reason, cancellation charges in addition to the non refundable deposit.

Within 60 days of the start of the workshop you will be liable for the total cost of the cost of the course (unless you can find another person to take your place).

You are liable for the total cost of the course once it has begun and will be required to sign a legal document to honor this agreement.

Included in the fees all tuition by staff and all food and accommodation. Excluded: Any fees for special diets, and any travel costs.

You agree not to take un-prescribed drugs or drink alcohol during modules

You agree to maintain confidentiality. Whilst you can choose to share your own experience of your process you agree not divulge any personal information about other group members or staff.

This application is between yourself and Middle Earth Medicine.

If accepted onto this Space Holder training you will be asked to sign a booking form and contract. Please be fully aware that our booking conditions constitute a contract between us governed by the laws of England. The contract shall be created upon our acceptance of your booking.

I have read and accept the Booking Conditions pertaining to this ongoing group.
